5. Re-Union Dinner 2016

i. Following enquiries by LH as a result of the agreement at the AGM to pursue a change of venue, it was endorsed by the Committee to hold the 129th RNWA Re-Union Dinner at the Union Jack Club (UJC), Sandell Street, Waterloo, London SE1 8UJ on Friday 14th October 2016.

ii. Menu choice one was selected and it was agreed that members would be subsidised costing them £25.00 and non-members / guests £35.00. The subsidiary and cost remaining the same as in the past two years and even at London prices!

iii. Full details to be placed initially via the RNWA's website and announced in the association's scheduled January / February 2016 Newsletter.

6. Any Other Business

i. An invoice had been received for the refurbishment of the RNWA's bench located in Southsea which was £203.94 However due to the generosity of a few members who had donated money towards the pending cost, the bench has been paid for but specifically by Mr Paul Rowe with a generous donation of £200.

ii. Newly designed 'Writer' lapel pins have been ordered by CH (300) which will be issued to all members with the forthcoming newsletter. By coincidence, a cheque was received only this week from the executor of a member and the cheque received is to be utilised to cover the cost of this expenditure. Full details to be announced via the forthcoming newsletter.
